'JT' Jim Tatem is the President and Lead Broker of Transworld Business Advisors Western Carolinas. His team excels in helping business people buy, build and sell the business of their dreams. Transworld Business Advisors is the world leader and largest Business Brokerage, Franchise Development & Franchise Consulting Company with over 250 offices and more than 800 agents and brokers worldwide. He's a family driven husband of 39 years raising and loving 4 children, 7 grandchildren, active in his local church and community who believes in putting faith and family before fortune.

His career includes over 3 decades of real world, day by day experience driving a network of more than 3000 individuals running, growing, and selling their businesses. JT has developed as an engaging keynote speaker, business coach and practical teacher for entrepreneurs. Utilizing his designations as a graduate from University of St. Thomas-MiniMBA Franchising, a John Maxwell Team-Certified Speaker, Trainer, and Coach, and a CFE-Certified Franchise Executive, his clients have gained insight and actionable plans designed to increase their customer base, improve their business performance and impact their bottom line. JT hosts workshops in Goal Getting, 7 Steps to Successful Living, as well as authoring "The 5 Thrive Strategies".

With a career that began in 1986, including roles as Signarama Brand President for 10 years, and United Franchise Group President for 2 years, he now serves in numerous capacities to benefit others in the business and private sectors. He serves on: Board of Directors - United Franchise Group, Board of Directors - Dunklin Memorial Church, Board of Directors - Carolinas Virginia Business Brokers Association, a member of International Business Brokers Association, Greenville City Center Rotary, and Asheville Chamber of Commerce.

He practices a mantra each day of "Leaving people better than I found them"
